Washington, Mar. 12.—If you can't spend about $950 in fines and re-
to spend about $950 in fines and re-three months in an English jail, a you have to do is violate some of Great Britain's stringent food laws.

Should you want to be as kindhearted as the English vicar one Robert E. A. Phillips, by aiding the secretary of a training camp for disabled soldiers to secure more than his due allowance of sugar, then part with the first $100. The kind vicar, after due process of law in an English court, paid just that much for his crime.

The next thing you have to do to start your three months in jail is take several sleek and fine looking pigs and feed them on a ration of bread and meal, as their proud possessor, Frederick Moore, of Oxenford, d.d. Three months in jail. Charge using bread otherwise than for human food.

If you don't care to lose another $4.0 in fines you should remember that the British government requires sworn statements of the amounts of sugar required by individuals for preserving fruits. Should your demand be greater than that required by your fruits you want to preserve, then pay another $10 like the Rev John H. Kins, of Brentford, who demanded 10 pounds of sugar to preserve plum from four plum trees in his orchard.

The remainder of the $960 you surrender to British courts of justice by committing the following crime:

Serve milk and bread as breakfast for your pet dogs. $25.

Throw just three pieces of bread
a garbage can and let the English lice find them there, $25.

Keep a grocery store at Cardiff
Wales and say to your customers
I will not sell you any sugar unless you buy a larger quantity of goods," then hand him back his ration

Sell a pound of mutton for 1 more than the price prescribed by British Ministry of Food, $250.

Offer a higher price for slaughter hogs than that prescribed by law, pay, in addition to court costs, $

New York, March 12.—A gang of alleged woman spies operating in men confederates in the camp, Germany was believed uncovered today with the arrest of an American born woman said to have come from a prominent family. It is believed she has been furnishing valuable information to Germany. It was declared today that Wm. Korthaus, German held for internment correspondence regularly with Germany, India, Portugal, Spain and Canada, was also reported that Korthaus was on trips to Boston where he is said to have visited a woman according to the authorities who gave information to a number of German agents.

BAKER WILL VISIT FR'CH BATTLE FRONT

(By United Press)

Paris, March 12.—Newton D. Baker, American Secretary of War, was aboard a cruiser which conveyed 100 troops, of which a portion were aboard a former German liner, it was learned today. The voyage was hurried in mid-ocean by a submarine alarm, according to further information. There was considerable commotion before it was discovered that the "periscope" was only a fishing spar.

Before the cruiser entered port Sunday morning an alarm was given lessed of a report that a submarine was lurking nearby. The French sent out a considerable convoy of biplanes and dirigibles. Baker was visibly impressed by the thoroughness of these precautions.

After landing, the Secretary of War repaid the calls of French military and naval chiefs and was about town for 30 minutes before boarding a train for Paris. Arriving in Paris Baker accompanied by General Pershing began a round of calls concluding with Ambassador Bichard who will present him formally to President Poincaré. Baker issued a statement in which he announced intentions of visiting all the communication lines of the army after which he would confer thoroughly with Pershing in order to support more effectively the allied armies.

THE GERMAN-AMERICAN

A hearing is going on in Washington before the Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee on a bill to reveal the charter of the German-American Alliance, a notorious organization whose purpose is to spread German Kultur in the United States. The charges against the Alliance are made by Gustavus Ohlinger, of Toledo, an author of repute. The counsel for the defense is Theodore Sutro, of New York, member of the Alliance. Mr. Sutro contends that Kultur is not understood in America, and that "this man Ohlinger is a renegade, and no man ever heard of him until he appeared here." And Mr. Sutro is surprised that the committee stooped to hear him.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Sutro will have a few more surprises before the committee gets through with him. He is likely to find that the Kultur of the baby-killers is quite well understood in America. He is likely to find that while he may call Mr. Ohlinger a renegade, the committee and the American public will perceive that he is a renegade to the Kaiser, and a loyal American. Mr. Sutro is also likely to find that he himself is recalled as the former editor of Hearst's German Journal—enough to classify him.

STOP TALKING PEACE

It is time that the United States stopped playing Germany's game.

Germany, sure of her ability to keep her own peoples solid for war, talks peace. We, stopping our own efforts to listen and to answer, cripple and confuse both ourselves and our allies.

It is the old, old game, of the two burglars in the jewelry shop. One engages the proprietor in conversation while the other robs the safe.

While Hertling gives vent to as choice a lot of mendacious hot-air as the world has ever heard, Hindenburg snips upon prostrate Russia and adds another corpse to his rapidly accumulating collection.

And we, soft-hearted, soft-headed, kindly-souled, peace-loving, peace-inured people that we are, gabble on while murder is committed before our very eyes.

We had better begin to realize that this thing we have embarked in is not a joint debate but a war. Every day that we spend in conversation and that Germany spends in war, is a two days' loss to us and a two days' gain for them.

Time is the essence of victory for Germany as well as for ourselves. We have not now enough ships both to supply our troops in France and to handle other necessary shipping as well. Every day that we delay in bringing every effort that we as a nation possess to the successful prosecution of the war, means a day gained for Germany's submarines, a day gained for the development of the new resources that she has captured by force of arms.

How much longer do we intend to stand in the front door talking to the well-dressed confidence man while his beetle-browed pal commits murder in the back room?

We have already bought a good half dozen German gold bricks. How many more must we purchase before we think we've got enough?

Buck Herzog, who goes from the Giants to the Braves, will be pleased to read that Eddie Fitzpatrick prefers working on a farm to playing with the Braves.

Winning The War

Behind the soldier and the sailor, with the farmers stand business man and banker, bringing to bear for victory, every resource of this, the world's richest nation.

This Institution invites the cooperation of every progressive element in the community and extends its best services and facilities to insure the early winning of the war.

Spring Announcement

A Broad Comprehensive And Authoritative Display Of The Fashions, For Spring
Sanctioned By Recognized Fashion Authorities

Special displays have been made throughout the store and in such manner as to allow you to view at your leisure and in a satisfying manner the modes for Spring 1918 that will be in vogue.

The Fashions of the season, developed by the master designers of the nation have been assembled for your inspection. This occasion, will, because of its very nature and the influence it will exert among the fashion devotees of this city and surrounding, be attended eagerly.

The scope of the showing, the unusual grouping and arrangement of the merchandise only emphasizes the importance of this Fashion Event and as such must impress upon you the advisability of an early visit.

Eton Coats and Straight Lines Are The Two Distinctive Features of The Spring Suits

It was first thought that Eton coats alone would be the dominating fashion influence, but then designers brought out so smart a coat in the three-quarter length which helped produce the silhouette effect that both of these models are extremely favorable. One is as correct as the other.

The straight line coats are in three-quarters length and have narrow or slender skirts and then the smart Eton coats with their pleasing new features, are also with the narrow or slender skirt.

It is difficult to described them. The models are many. One is as effective as the other. These new suits are in the new Havana browns and other new shades. They are priced from $19.75 to $75.00.

First Display of Spring Coats, Newest Styles Ready for Selection

When you consider that Easter is but a few weeks off—and that straw hats have been worn for almost a month—you will see that it is not a day too early to choose your new coat. Quite true there will be cool days—and many of them; which means you will require a lightweight coat over your new suit.

The new coats are fashioned of satins, charmeuse, tulle, in the silk models; serge gabardine and lightweight velour lead in woollens. Mostly in 45-inch length. Red and blue combinations that are so popular are well represented in the showing. The vogue for sports colors find true reflection in the advance models now being shown.

In a range of prices from $16.50 to $69.75.

Our Display of Silks and Dress Goods Have Created Unprecedented Interest

Aside from the comment that has been created because of the splendid showings made and the displays that are attracting such wide attention—it is to be noted that the colorings no doubt hold the center of the stage. We venture to state that no matter what your tastes—and how difficult it has been in past seasons to satisfy them as to colors—you are bound to find several designs to please you this Spring. It is not a question whether you'll like the patterns—they'll fascinate you at first glance.

The New Printed Foulards Are Typically A Spring And Summer Silk. Their Popularity Is Already Assured

Stunning, rich and out-of-the-ordinary designs have been developed. You will find here a special exhibit ready and priced at $2.00 a yard.

Plain Taffeta Silks are also among the leading silks. We are showing a large range of new shades at $1.75 a yard.

Georgette Crepes and crepe-de-chines in a splendid collection of new colors at $1.75 to $2.00.

Neckwear: Duplicates of Styles Being Worn on Fifth Ave N. Y.

Here you will find some of the most unique as well as favored neckwear modes for the coming season. Various effects are shown, including deep, sailor and cut-in or surplice effects. Then, too, you will find a full representation of the new novelty vestees—designs that are rapidly coming into first favor with the fashion loving and sports woman.

Have Been Set Aside For These Important Displays

Millinery Opening

Announcing Our Formal Exhibit of Authentic Fashions in Millinery

On this important fashion occasion and during the days specified, we shall deem it a pleasure to have you call and view the exhibit of correct and authentic fashions in Spring Millinery Modes.

You will find on view, hats of various shape and designed in many ways. You will find reproduced, authentically, the masterpiece of millinery fashion for the Spring and Summer of 1918.

The exhibit is worthy of more than ordinary mention. It deserves most careful inspection, for you will gain fashion information that will be of value to you in determining the style hat to purchase at any time during the next several months.

Please accept this, then, as our personal invitation to attend the exhibit and view the models at your leisure.

There Is So Much To Admire In A Pretty Sweater-

Remarkd one of our customers after making a careful inspection of the new sport models for Spring "that I simply can't resist feeling I would like to have more than one." They're so pretty—really, we feel the same.

Fashion Says—Dresses

The fashion trend says dresses are to be the favored outer garment for woman. Whether this is because of present war conditions, whether because of the scarcity of expert tailors, whether because of the scarcity of materials, we cannot say, but whatever the cause, you are interested in knowing that dresses are to be popular and that you can find an unusual collection here. We have sensed the fashion trend in such manner as to again demonstrate the fashion leadership of this store.

We invite you to view the most comprehensive exhibit of new dress fashions we have shown for Spring in many a day.

The Separate Skirt Season Is On! Have You An Ample Supply of Skirts?

Now that it is a settled question that skirts hold first place in the fashions for Spring, you must early decide on the skirts you will have need for and to wear with your waists. Nor need you worry whether to get this or that, for you will find ALL types of skirts here and at prices to suit every purse.

Beautiful New Waists

Difficulties seemingly insurmountable have been overcome; and for the new season, this store still maintains its supremacy with a stock of waists that will rival many a metropolitan store.

Wonderful displays are now in order—splendid values abound. Styles to suit every whim, taste, fancy and caprice (and which have come to our knowledge by long years of caring for your wants) have been provided for in the assemblage now shown.

Dainty voile waists in a large assortment of new styles from $1.00 to $7.50.

Beautiful crepe-de-chine and Georgette crepe waists in all the delicate new shades from $3.50 to $9.75.

Will You Fit Your New Dress Over A New or Old Corset?

If you have fitted your dress heretofore, you know just the chance you are taking if you fit it over an old corset. First of all, the new dresses are on lines conforming with the new fashions and consequently you MUST have a corset built along the same lines so as to bring out the true style features, at the same time each figure most often requires a particular type of corset.

The new models in Gossard and Royal Worcester have arrived so that you can select a corset in the correct shape and the correct size. Prices very reasonable.

New Kid Gloves—Make Their Bow With Other Spring Arrivals

Kid gloves are back with us again! And are here to stay for a long, long time. Predictions point to the greatest kid glove season yet. So as to secure your size (many women buy two and three pairs of gloves at this time) we advise you to be fitted as early as possible.

Starting from $2.00 a pair, these kid gloves rise in price by gradual stages to $3.25 for a pair of fancy trimmed kid gloves. Washable Cape Gloves $2.00 to $2.95.

A really unusual price for most any kind of glove—particularly so for washable cape gloves like these. White, tan, gray and ivory.

Patent Leather Belts

Some are as wide as 2 1/2 inches; others of the military type being worn with the new suits. Large, odd shaped buckles. Ample choice.

Prices 25c to 50c.

FARMERS WILL GET RELIEF

(By United Press)
Washington, March 12—Eight hundred thousand men may be called the "second draft" will be the national quota to be fed into the military mill in small groups from week to week and from month to month as needed, according to official announcement today. This vast number will be divided into state quotas and with certain exceptions it will be drawn from Class 1 and will be utilized to make replacements in existing units and to furnish needed support to regiments for the present army.

Ten thousand young men, skilled artisans, some of whom may not be in Class 1 has been asked of the states already by Provost Marshal General Crowder and 10,000 other young men will be summoned this summer to go into the technical training schools for special fighting. All agriculturists will be given deferred rating.

No date is set for the second draft. The system precludes the fixing of a definite date but the men will be called in small groups as the occasion requires. The situation depends upon a number of elements. Emptying of a camp will allow for an increment from the 800,000 to that camp. Men will be called to replace troops in a certain division. The men will go in comparatively small groups which will probably take the entire year of 1918. The call will be in part depending upon pending legislation in congress. As now arranged the draft is considered by Provost Marshal General Crowder as "selective" and as working the least possible disruption to industry and agriculture.

COMMEMORATES BRAVE GIRL'S SERVICE

Don C. Daugherty
Russell Fisher
Roy Fullington
James Dale
William Merrill
Edgar Markle
Henry Miller
Ryle L. Miller

AND A GOOD JUDGE, TOO

The judge will tell you how he became a judge. This will make your hair raise and your teeth crush when you find how he got his job by a "job" and it was a pretty good job, too.

If this play does not make you swallow your false teeth, chewing gum, or the filling out of one of your teeth, it will be a big surprise anyhow. The Hon. Wm. A. Boag will take the part of the judge in "Trial by Jury," a legal farce to be presented by the C. H. S. Glee Club Thursday evening, March 14, at the low war-time price of 15 cents. Seats on sale at Stewart's Drug Store. Come and break your jaw or split one of your ribs laughing at this.

FRANCE APPEALS

Washington, March 11—France has made a new and urgent appeal to the United States for more speed in shipping fighting men across the Atlantic.

Last Increment Of First Draft Will Go To Camp On Or About March 29th Is The Order

8,000 FROM PENNSYLVANIA

Washington, March 11—Ninety-five thousand men were ordered today by the War department to prepare for induction into the service. The movement will start March 29, and continue for five days. This is the last increment of the first draft. The movement will include the mobilization of 28,000 southern negroes to northern camps.

Because of the peculiar weather situation some districts which have given their quotas will be asked to furnish more men and will be given credit under the second draft. Several thousand of those mobilized will be used to fill up the places made vacant by deaths and other withdrawals. Others will be for industrial calls, of which 56 have already been made, according to Deputy Provost Marshal General Johnson today. The first contingent of industrial workers drafted recently went to France, Johnson said. Today's orders will be made from all states except Iowa and Minnesota. Some of the state allotments are: Ohio 6,955 and Pennsylvania 7,828. District No. 1 has already sent two hundred men to Camp Lee and this last call will mean about twenty more to complete the first quota and provide for those rejected and discharged after reaching camp.

KICKERS ON THE FOOD RULINGS SHOULD READ THIS

(By United Press)

Washington, Mar. 12.—If you care to spend about $950 in fines and rest three months in an English jail, all you have to do is violate some of Great Britain's stringent food laws.

Should you want to be as kind hearted as the English vicar one Rev. E. A. Phillips, by aiding the secretary of a training camp for disabled soldiers to secure more than his due allowance of sugar, then part with the first $100. The kind vicar, after due process of law in an English court, paid just that much for his crime. The next thing you have to do is to start your three months in jail is to take several sleek and fine looking pigs and feed them on a ration of bread and meat, as their proud possessor, Frederick Moore, of Oxenhope, did. Three months in jail. Charge: Using bread otherwise than for human food.

If you don't care to lose another $50 in fines you should remember that the British government requires sworn statements of the amounts of sugar required by individuals for preserving fruits. Should your demand be greater than that required by the fruits you want to preserve, then pay another $10 like the Rev. John Hopkins, of Brentford, who demanded 36 pounds of sugar to preserve plums from four plum trees in his orchard.

The remainder of the $950 you can surrender to British courts of justice by committing the following crimes: Serve milk and bread as breakfast for your pet dogs, $25.

Throw just three pieces of bread in a garbage can and let the English police find them there, $25.

Keep a grocery store at Cardiff, Wales and say to your customer, "I will not sell you any sugar unless you buy a larger quantity of goods," and then hand him back his ration card (—) $250.

Sell a pound of mutton for 1 cent more than the price prescribed by the British Ministry of Food, $250.

Offer a higher price for slaughtered hogs than that prescribed by law, and pay, in addition to court costs, $125.

And finally, if you want to retain your last $50 just take a lesson from John Bull, the enterprising baker in Red Lion street, London, who, to meet his customers' demand, sold bread baked just a few hours before. Fifty dollars fine. Charge: Selling bread that had not been baked 12 hours, as required by the bread law in England.

FINLAND MAY BE A GREAT TROUBLE TO GERMAN RULERS

By J. W. T. Mason

Written for the United Press
New York, March 11.—Reports from Japan that Prince Lvoff is contemplating the establishment of a stable government in Siberia do not suggest that the German menace against Siberia has reached formidable proportions.

Prince Lvoff was the first premier of Russia after the Czar had been overthrown and he directed a strong anti-German policy at Petrograd during his tenure in office. The Germans would strongly oppose a Lvoff government in Siberia. So, however, would the Bolsheviks. Lvoff is a Liberal of the old regime, but Russia is now experimenting with far more extreme principles than are approved by him. A Lvoff government, therefore, while anti-German would be also anti-Bolshevik.

If Lvoff could be restored as Premier of Russia, the Russians would re-enter the war under vigorous direction. But, for this to be possible the new spirit of Democracy now rampant in Russia would first have to become far more conservative than it is. Intervention by outside forces to put Lvoff back into power would not curb Russia's runaway gallop for democracy, would probably result in a far more confused revolutionary condition.

Von Hindenburg's creation of Finland into a Hohenzollern state is causing a strong reaction in Scandinavia and Holland that must result in Germany's disadvantage during the rest of the war.

Scandinavia and Holland have lately shown much restlessness under the necessary food restriction regulations of America and the Allies.

Germany's blundering arrogance in Finland, however, must cause the other Baltic countries to realize that the German menace has become permanent for them unless the Allies win the war. Even Sweden, after all that her diplomats have done for Germany, is now ignoring the Kaiser, in the Finnish settlement. Von Hindenburg has done a good day's work for the Allies in Finland.

HENRY NASH DIES IN ARMY SERVICE

Henry Charles Nash, who enlisted last September, and has been stationed at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., died this Monday morning in a camp hospital. He became sick about two weeks ago, the illness developing into pneumonia. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nash, were notified and they left for Camp Sherman last Thursday. Today a telegram came from them announcing the young man's death. The body will probably reach Philadelphia tomorrow evening. He was in his 26th year and besides his parents and two sisters, Miss Mabel and Mrs. John E. Tighe, leaves a wife and child in Detroit. The young man had many friends in this neighborhood who are saddened by his death, the first among the young men who have gone from here into the army and navy for the great war with Germany.

The Nash family were former residents of Clearfield and have many friends here who sympathize with them in their sad bereavement.

LUXBURG MAY BE AT LARGE

(By United Press)

Buenos Ayres, March 12.—A sensation was created here today by receipt of news from Santiago that Count Luxemburg, former German ambassador to Argentina has been seen on a trans-Andean railroad train in Chile. The police here admitted today that they had lost track of Luxemburg a few days ago. The German naval attaché also was missing. Luxemburg was granted safe conduct by Great Britain a few days ago.

LITTLE TOT EATS POISON TABLETS RESULT IS FATAL

Unnoticed by the parents or other members of the family, Onen, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Perensy, of Poin Lookout, on Saturday morning, March 9, got hold of a bottle containing tablets prescribed by a local physician for one of the other children ill with measles. The little fellow ate twelve of the tablets, became violently ill and died within an hour. He was aged one year and eight months, and in his brief span of life had endeared himself in the hearts of those in the Perensy home. Burial was made this Monday afternoon in the Philipsburg cemetery.

FOLLOWS FATHER AS MINE INSPECTOR

J. Ira Thomas, whose father, D. H. Thomas, was the first mine inspector of this district, has been appointed to succeed the late Elbas Phillips, who died suddenly in DuBois a couple of weeks ago. He will have his headquarters in DuBois, but the mother, and sisters will still reside in Philipsburg.

If the young man makes as good an inspector as his father, who died about 22 years ago, and we have no doubt but what he will, miners and operators are to be congratulated. Young Mr. Thomas lately has been employed as a mining engineer for the Cambria Iron Company.

OWEN KIDWELL'S DEATH

Mrs. Owen Kidwell has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Murray at Shawville after attending the funeral of her husband, the late Owen Kidwell.

It will be remembered that Mr. Kidwell died in a Philadelphia hospital on Friday evening, Feb. 22d. Mrs. Kidwell was visiting her parents at the time, and did not receive word of her husband's death until apprised of the sad occurrence by a neighbor who had been asked to notify her by Chief Clerk Bain of the local Exemption Board who had been asked to get in touch with Mr. Kidwell's family.

The deceased was a policeman at the Hog Island ship yards and the story was published that he had been shot while on duty, but such was not the case. On the evening of Feb. 21st he had just finished writing a letter to his wife and brother when he was suddenly taken seriously ill. He was conveyed to the headquarters hospital where he became unconscious and his death occurred on the day after his admission, from acute uric poisoning. Lieut. Heffernan, of the police force, attempted to get word through to Mrs. Kidwell but on account of her being on her father's farm was unable to do so hence his ending of the aid of the Exemption Board.

The bereaved widow at once went to Philadelphia, identified the body and the A. I. S. C. having taken charge of everything for her, had the body prepared for shipment to Washington, D. C. where the funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Kidwell feels very grateful for the kindnesses shown her during her sad bereavement.

ENLISTED IN THE SERVICE

The Duran of Woodland entered the Medical Corps at the local Exemption Board.

Frank Cornelius of Engle enlisted in the Coast Artillery and will go to Columbus harbor.

DOGS ARE RUNNING IN GAME RESERVE

Dogs have been fiercely running deer on the mountains north of town for past week and so far as known one pair have already succeeded in killing two does. The dogs are running in pairs and we are informed by Al Dunlap, keeper of Kennedy Park reserve, that one pair which has been operating in the game reserve has already killed two fine does. This pair of dogs, ably assisted by a white hound and a half-breed collie or shepherd dog killed one doe about the middle of the week and a second one early Saturday morning, both carcasses being found by Mr. Dunlap and Harry Hummelsbaugh who has been out assisting in the attempt to round up the killers.

On account of the high wind prevailing the past four or five days Mr. Dunlap says it has been impossible to round up the marauders as it is impossible to trace the dogs by their baying. Following the killing of the deer Saturday the dogs went to the barn at the Crystal Springs Camp and spent the night in the hay there, making their way again into the woods on the approach of caretaker Sheldrake Sunday morning. Word was telephoned to Keeper Dunlap, He and Mr. Hummelsbaugh hurried over to Crystal Springs and tracked the dogs to where they breakfasted off the last deer killed and in an hour or two they had picked up the trail of another deer in the game reserve and after running it around in that section just ahead of their pursuers, rushed it off across Laurel run. It was getting dark by that time and the men had to give up the chase.

Mr. Dunlap says these dogs came from Tyler and that a second pair is operating over in the Lick and Stone run country, while the other two are in back of Frank Johnson's place.

Yesterday Messrs. Dunlap, Hummelsbaugh, Leslie Stewart, John Wilson and Frank Johnson were out all day hunting the dogs but they were evidently resting from their labors and had no doubt killed their third deer before quitting as nothing was heard of them all day.

Mr. Dunlap came to town last evening for ammunition and supplies and went back to the mountains early this morning expecting the dogs would be at it again today. He says the deer are weakened after the long hard winter and not in condition to stand a chase and that he is satisfied these dogs run down and kill every deer they start. He has already killed twelve dogs since taking charge at Kennedy Park about one year ago.

HARRY B. SCOTT IS FOR AMENDMENT

Hon. Harry B. Scott, of Philipsburg, under the proper heading announced his candidacy for re-nomination on the Republican ticket for Representative in the General Assembly. His record in the two sessions in which he has represented Centre county bespeaks for his return as it is a fact that he achieved more for the county and for our local interests than anyone who has held this position for many years. Mr. Scott has stated his position in regard to the prohibition amendment to be considered by the next Legislature by saying unequivocally that he will support state or national prohibition. This is in line with his political career. He has held this position for many years. Mr. Scott's ability as a legislator, combined with the experience gained by him in the sessions of 1915 and 1917 will make him an extraordinarily capable member in the session of 1919.—Philipsburg Journal

DR. S. C. STEWART ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS

Fatally Stricken As He Was About to Leave For Hospital To Operate On a Patient

RESPECTED BY ALL PEOPLE

No death in recent years caused a greater shock to our community or occasioned more genuine sorrow than the sudden taking off yesterday afternoon of Dr. Samuel C. Stewart the dean of the medical profession in this section. Dr. Stewart died virtually "in the harness," as the saying is, and no doubt as he desired it should be. A lifetime devoted as his has been, to the service of humanity, the alleviation of suffering and healing of the sick could have no more fitting end.

When the gray camel knelt by his gate and the final summons reached him he was even then in his automobile and had already started for the hospital for the purpose of relieving a patient's suffering and restore to health and strength a fellow human being. He died as he lived his long and busy professional life, in the service of others.

Dr. Stewart had been in precarious health for many months, suffering from acute kidney affection. He had a seizure about one year ago and when it had passed it left him, admirable diagnostician as he was, face to face with the fact that his days were numbered and his end was but the matter of possibly hours.

With that lion heart and strong will with which he had always faced the many battles of life, he refused to give way to weakened nature, but while he retired from active work, in name, he could not withstand the insistent demands for his services and continued in his exacting practice, and especially since his son, Dr. Lever F. Stewart, who was associated with his father, volunteered his services to his country, Dr. Stewart did work enough to tax the capacity of a well man.

As the representative of the State Department of Health in the county, when the selective draft law was placed in operation Dr. Stewart was named as the medical member of the Exemption board for District No. 1 of Clearfield county by Governor Brumbaugh. Although confined to his bed at the time, Dr. Stewart's iron will asserted itself, and obeying the patriotic summons he loaded up the car and arduous duties of this position and during the past ten months has devoted much time and labor to this exacting work.

In addition thereto the outbreak of small pox at Point Lookout, Blue Ball, Penfield and Viaduct, also added to his labors, because it was his duty as county representative of the State Department of Health to take general charge of the districts in which the outbreaks occurred. He shirked no duty, evaded no responsibility and continued his labors just as long and just as energetically as his physical strength would allow—more no man could do.

His death is indeed a distinct and heavy loss to our community; no one would be more sadly missed.

Samuel Cooper Stewart was the son of the late Daniel and Jane Lyons Stewart. He was born in Bradford township in June 1856. He entered Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia in 1878 and graduated in the class of 1881.

Following his graduation he began the practice of medicine at Woodland and in 1883 moved to Clearfield. He was studious and a tireless worker and soon amassed a large and lucrative practice. At the time of his death he was the oldest practitioner in this section of Clearfield county and was recognized as one of the leaders of his profession in this section of the state.

He was married in 1884 to Miss Blanche, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lever Flegal of Lawrence township and his widow with their three sons, Samuel Cooper, Jr.; Dr. Lever F., and Hugh survive.

He is also survived by one brother, Elmer M. Stewart, of this city. His other brothers, Ashley of Woodland and John C. of Clearfield having preceded him in death. His only sister, Mary Ellen, wife of Martin Wilson, deceased, has been dead many years. Dr. Stewart was a keen business man and also took a great deal of in-

AMERICAN WOMAN ARRESTED IN NEW YORK AS A

(By United Press)

New York, March 12.—A German woman, alleged to be operating a spy network in the employ of Germany was believed uncovered today with the arrest of an American born woman said to have come from a prominent family. It is believed she has been furnishing valuable information to Germany. It was declared today that Wm. Korthaus, a German held for internment, corresponded regularly with German agents in India, Portugal, Spain and Canada. It was also reported that Korthaus was on a trip to Boston where he is said to have visited a woman according to the authorities who gave instructions to a number of German agents.

BAKER WILL VISIT FR'CH BATTLE FRONT

(By United Press)

Paris, March 12.—Newton D. Baker, American Secretary of War, was aboard a cruiser which conveyed 100,000 troops, of which a portion were aboard a former German liner, it was learned today. The voyage was a hurried one in mid-ocean by a submarine alarm, according to further information. There was considerable commotion before it was discovered that the "periscope" was only a floating spar.

Before the cruiser entered port Sunday morning an alarm was witnessed of a report that a submarine was lurking nearby. The French sent out a considerable convoy of hydroplanes and dirigibles. Baker was visibly impressed by the thoroughness of these precautions.

After landing, the Secretary of War repaid the calls of French military and naval chiefs and walked about town for 40 minutes before boarding a train for Paris. Arriving in Paris Baker accompanied by General Pershing began a round of calls, concluding with Ambassador Bichard who will present him formally to President Poincaré. Baker issued a statement in which he announced his intentions of visiting all the combatant lines of the army after which he would confer thoroughly with Pershing in order to support more effectively the allied armies.

The Stage Woman's War Relief is sending weekly to the Red Cross an average of 3,500 surgical dressings, 1,600 baby garments, and 1,000 garments for adults.

Princess Patricia of Connaught is a clever milliner, and her sister, the Crown Princess of Sweden, has often looked charming in hats which she has trimmed herself.

Elton Harriet Capon worked in male attire in an English munition factory for two years before the army authorities discovered that "he" was a girl.

Interest in public and educational affairs. He was elected Burgess of Clearfield in 1891 and re-elected in 1892 and 1893. He also served very acceptably for a number of years as a member of the school board for Clearfield and took a prominent part in the County School Director's conventions during his service as a school director.

He was the Democratic candidate for State Senator from this district in 1910 and was only defeated by the narrow margin.

Samuel Cooper Stewart was strong in his likes and dislikes, and had the courage of his convictions at all times. He was brusque of speech and manner, but extremely tender-hearted and affectionate in his home life, and possessed the qualities of head and heart which attached his friends to him with hooks of steel.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and was possessed of that practical Christianity which served to equip him for what he was, the ideal family physician. He was the character of man our community could ill afford to lose. May he rest in peace.

Funeral services will be held at the late home on North Second street Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services will be conducted by his pastor, the Rev. Dr. S. C. Howe, and the local Masonic lodge will have charge of the arrangements. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

THE GERMAN-AMERICAN

A hearing is going on in Washington before the Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee on a bill to reveal the charter of the German-American Alliance, a notorious organization whose purpose is to spread German Kultur in the United States. The charges against the Alliance are made by Gustavus Ohlinger, of Toledo, an author of repute. The counsel for the defense is Theodore Sutro, of New York, member of the Alliance. Mr. Sutro contends that Kultur is not understood in America, and that "this man Ohlinger is a renegade, and no man ever heard of him until he appeared here." And Mr. Sutro is surprised that the committee stooped to hear him. It is to be hoped that Mr. Sutro will have a few more surprises before the committee gets through with him. He is likely to find that the Kultur of the baby-killers is quite well understood in America. He is likely to find that while he may call Mr. Ohlinger a renegade, the committee and the American public will perceive that he is a renegade to the Kaiser, and a loyal American. Mr. Sutro is also likely to find that he himself is recalled as the former editor of Hearst's German Journal—enough to classify him.

STOP TALKING PEACE

It is time that the United States stopped playing Germany's game.

Germany, sure of her ability to keep her own peoples solid for war, talks peace. We, stopping our own efforts to listen and to answer, cripple and confuse both ourselves and our allies.

It is the old, old game, of the two burglars in the jewelry shop. One engages the proprietor in conversation while the other robs the safe.

While Hertling gives vent to as choice a lot of mendacious hot-air as the world has ever heard, Hindenburg snips upon prostrate Russia and adds another corpse to his rapidly accumulating collection.

And we, soft-hearted, soft-headed, kindly-souled, peace-loving, peace-inured people that we are, gabble on while murder is committed before our very eyes.

We had better begin to realize that this thing we have embarked in is not a joint debate but a war. Every day that we spend in conversation and that Germany spends in war, is a two days' loss to us and a two days' gain for them.

Time is the essence of victory for Germany as well as for ourselves. We have not now enough ships both to supply our troops in France and to handle other necessary shipping as well. Every day that we delay in bringing every effort that we as a nation possess to the successful prosecution of the war, means a day gained for Germany's submarines, a day gained for the development of the new resources that she has captured by force of arms.

How much longer do we intend to stand in the front door talking to the well-dressed confidence man while his beetle-browed pal commits murder in the back room?

We have already bought a good half dozen German gold bricks. How many more must we purchase before we think we've got enough?

Buck Herzog, who goes from the Giants to the Braves, will be pleased to read that Eddie Fitzpatrick prefers working on a farm to playing with the Braves.

Spring Announcement

A Broad Comprehensive And Authoritative Display Of The Fashions, For Spring
Sanctioned By Recognized Fashion Authorities

Special displays have been made throughout the store and in such manner as to allow you to view at your leisure and in a satisfying manner the modes for Spring 1918 that will be in vogue.

The Fashions of the season, developed by the master designers of the nation have been assembled for your inspection. This occasion, will, because of its very nature and the influence it will exert among the fashion devotees of this city and surrounding, be attended eagerly.

The scope of the showing, the unusual grouping and arrangement of the merchandise only emphasizes the importance of this Fashion Event and as such must impress upon you the advisability of an early visit.

Eton Coats and Straight Lines Are The Two Distinctive Features of The Spring Suits

It was first thought that Eton coats alone would be the dominating fashion influence, but then designers brought out so smart a coat in the three-quarter length which helped produce the silhouette effect that both of these models are extremely favorable. One is as correct as the other.

The straight line coats are in three-quarters length and have narrow or slender skirts and then the smart Eton coats with their pleasing new features, are also with the narrow or slender skirt.

It is difficult to described them. The models are many. One is as effective as the other. These new suits are in the new Havana browns and other new shades. They are priced from $19.75 to $75.00.

First Display of Spring Coats, Newest Styles Ready for Selection

When you consider that Easter is but a few weeks off—and that straw hats have been worn for almost a month—you will see that it is not a day too early to choose your new coat. Quite true there will be cool days—and many of them; which means you will require a lightweight coat over your new suit.

The new coats are fashioned of satins, charmeuse, tulle, in the silk models; serge gabardine and lightweight velour lead in woollens. Mostly in 45-inch length. Red and blue combinations that are so popular are well represented in the showing. The vogue for sports colors find true reflection in the advance models now being shown.

In a range of prices from $16.50 to $69.75.

Our Display of Silks and Dress Goods Have Created Unprecedented Interest

Aside from the comment that has been created because of the splendid showings made and the displays that are attracting such wide attention—it is to be noted that the colorings no doubt hold the center of the stage. We venture to state that no matter what your tastes—and how difficult it has been in past seasons to satisfy them as to colors—you are bound to find several designs to please you this Spring. It is not a question whether you'll like the patterns—they'll fascinate you at first glance.

The New Printed Foulards Are Typically A Spring And Summer Silk. Their Popularity Is Already Assured

Stunning, rich and out-of-the-ordinary designs have been developed. You will find here a special exhibit ready and priced at $2.00 a yard.

Plain Taffeta Silks are also among the leading silks. We are showing a large range of new shades at $1.75 a yard.

Georgette Crepes and crepe-de-chines in a splendid collection of new colors at $1.75 to $2.00.

Neckwear: Duplicates of Styles Being Worn on Fifth Ave N. Y.

Here you will find some of the most unique as well as favored neckwear modes for the coming season. Various effects are shown, including deep, sailor and cut-in or surplice effects. Then, too, you will find a full representation of the new novelty vestees—designs that are rapidly coming into first favor with the fashion loving and sports woman.

Thursday, Friday & Saturday

March 14th, 15th and 16th

On this important fashion occasion and during the days specified, we shall deem it a pleasure to have you call and view the exhibit of correct and authentic fashions in Spring Millinery Modes.

You will find on view, hats of various shape and designed in many ways. You will find reproduced, authentically, the masterpiece of millinery fashion for the Spring and Summer of 1918.

The exhibit is worthy of more than ordinary mention. It deserves most careful inspection, for you will gain fashion information that will be of value to you in determining the style hat to purchase at any time during the next several months.

Please accept this, then, as our personal invitation to attend the exhibit and view the models at your leisure.

There Is So Much To Admire In A Pretty Sweater-

Remarkd one of our customers after making a careful inspection of the new sport models for Spring "that I simply can't resist feeling I would like to have more than one." They're so pretty—really, we feel the same.

Fashion Says—Dresses

The fashion trend says dresses are to be the favored outer garment for woman. Whether this is because of present war conditions, whether because of the scarcity of expert tailors, whether because of the scarcity of materials, we cannot say, but whatever the cause, you are interested in knowing that dresses are to be popular and that you can find an unusual collection here. We have sensed the fashion trend in such manner as to again demonstrate the fashion leadership of this store.

We invite you to view the most comprehensive exhibit of new dress fashions we have shown for Spring in many a day.

The Separate Skirt Season Is On! Have You An Ample Supply of Skirts?

Will You Fit Your New Dress Over A New or Old Corset?

If you have fitted your dress heretofore, you know just the chance you are taking if you fit it over an old corset. First of all, the new dresses are on lines conforming with the new fashions and consequently you MUST have a corset built along the same lines so as to bring out the true style features, at the same time each figure most often requires a particular type of corset.

The new models in Gossard and Royal Worcester have arrived so that you can select a corset in the correct shape and the correct size. Prices very reasonable.

New Kid Gloves—Make Their Bow With Other Spring Arrivals

Kid gloves are back with us again! And are here to stay for a long, long time. Predictions point to the greatest kid glove season yet. So as to secure your size (many women buy two and three pairs of gloves at this time) we advise you to be fitted as early as possible.

A really unusual price for most any kind of glove—particularly so for washable cape gloves like these. White, tan, gray and ivory.
